Tramp's Bride (Mail Order Brides Of Texas Book 4)

Synopsis

Handsome Cowboy Tramp Hart left his home and friends over a year ago. He's finally back to make amends and take his place on the ranch. That is until he walks into the house he designed and finds a woman living there. He needs a plan to get her out so he can move in. Mail Order Bride Ilene Duffy traveled from New York City to Asherville, Texas only to find out her marriage contract was no longer valid. Rancher Cinders and his wife Shannon offer her an empty house on their land. Ilene has no intentions of getting married. Join me in Asherville, Texas and watch Tramp's antics as he tries one thing after another to get Ilene out of his house. Tramp had finally met his match.

So loved this love story. This story touched on feeling most women have. Enjoyed the innocence, pride of these people. Even my preacher would approve of this story. Well written and think you. Have read all the others in this series. Looking forward to more.

Tramp is my favorite hero in this series. I loved him, between his being obnoxious, but yet so hilarious in the ways he thought, had me spending a lot of time laughing at his antics. Through it all, he was too blind to see he was falling in love. Ilene was a favorite too, I liked her in the last book as a secondary character. Shy and quiet but stronger than she thinks, and also denying what her heart was telling her. Along with the characters from the previous books, I thoroughly enjoyed reading and following to a HEA. Clean and Sweet. JudyE

Was happy to see Tramp was welcomed back on the ranch by Cinder and Shannon. They shared quite the history in "Cinder's Bride". Finding Irene living in his house you just knew sparks were going to flyHaving Ava and family living at the ranch did not help. She caused so much confusion. I enjoyed this series and highly recommend that you read all four books.

Kathleen does it again! I am loving the way she is building this little world full of wonderful characters! There are so many stories to be told in this sleepy little Texas town! Bringing more strong, interesting characters in a story where forgiveness and appreciation turn into friendship and love makes this story rich and fun along with a great ensemble secondary cast from prior books as well as an introduction of one of the most annoying families I have read in a very long time! Loved it all!

Another winner for Kathleen Ball. Tramp's Bride is a wonderful addition to the Mail Order Brides of Texas series. With Tramp's return, there's bound to be excitement and a few wild times. They begin as soon as Tramp finds Ilene living in his house. He's determined to have her leave, but will she change his mind? A wonderful read.
