Branding The Virgin

Synopsis

Mary-Jane wasn't looking for drama. All she wanted was a family of her own, so she decided to make that happen. A mix-up at the sperm bank leaves her with a baby in her belly, but the father is none the wiser. Ty was injured in a bull-riding accident, and now all he plans on doing is working on his ranch and keeping to himself. That is, until a little dark-haired woman shows up on his doorstep. When their paths cross, will Mary-Jane be able to reveal to Ty that he's the father? Will Ty be able to keep Mary-Jane from running? Will there be a lot of steam in this book? You betcha! Warning: This pregnant virgin story is wonderfully ridiculous and just as sweet as it sounds. Saddle up and take an evening stroll with this easy quickie.

The story was sweet but it definitely need MORE. First, the whole thing happened in about 2 1/2 days. I have heard and read of love at first sight but this was definitely taking it too far. The female lead Mary Jane finds out that there is a mix-up the the fertility clinic and the sperm she was artificially inseminated with was from an unwilling donor. Now she decides to go undercover and work for the guy, Ty, to see if he is a good person or if he will try to take her baby from her (as if she has no rights to the baby as soon as he finds out she is having his baby without his consent?). Second, his instant attraction to her pisses him off because her touch instantly heals his erection problem after a year of not working and then he instantly wants to make her his, without knowing anything about her! He knows her less than a few hours and has changed his whole house for her. Then, they spend one day at his farm and he is instantly territorial of her around any of the work hands and his brothers. He finds out she is pregnant and he is instantly claiming the baby as his like he owns it, and that is BEFORE he even finds out that it really is his kid. If it isn't fast then the next part is. By the next morning he is slipping a ring on her finger and insisting they go down to the courthouse and get hitched. There is just too much happening "instantly" and not enough time for the characters to build a believable bond and chemistry. Mary Jane's character just seems a little flat. She just goes along with everything. She doesn't stand up for herself or think logically for the sake of her baby. Ty seems to be a very possessive person, almost pushing himself on her and not really thinking about whether she would want it or not, claiming her before even talking to her about her feelings, etc.
