Find Your Writing Voice: How To Write More Like Your Amazing Self, For Books, Blog Posts, And Email

Synopsis

Writing isn't simply about the mechanics. Learn how to distill your unique writing voice for any of your projects, from sending an email to blogging to writing your own book. Come get practical and step-by-step action to take you from "want to" into the realm of "just did." Learn how to develop topics, how to be bolder in your writing, and how to say what you mean. This works for fiction as well as non fiction, so don't give yourself that excuse, either. Short, sweet, and to the point, this book is designed to give you new skills and get you back out there writing again. Written by the New York Times bestselling author of eight books (this is his ninth) and a internationally sought after blogger and keynote speaker.

Customer Reviews

This isn't really a book... it's personal coaching from a warm friend who happens to be one of the best writers around, but better yet knows how to bring greatness out of others and onto the typed page. Extremely useful and easy to apply. It WILL help you write better.

Getting advice from Chris is like getting advice from an old friend. You know it's good. It makes sense. It's dumbed down enough for you to understand but not too much to make you feel stupid. And it works. If you're writing a book (or like me you are torturing yourself by writing a book) this is the perfect inspiration to pick yourself up, dust yourself off and get back to it! Speaking of which...

I'm a fan and friend of Chris. I've always admired his ability to cut the BS, and get right down to doing the work. If you want to find your writing voice and produce great work you need this. Chris provides actionable advice and includes special treats for his readers. This is a brief book that gets right down to the meat. No fluff. Get on it.

Instructive and sincere, Chris's style is that of a practiced (read: relaxed) storyteller. He's the college professor you actually enjoyed, because he made his lessons interesting and had a real sense of heart.

I've been a fan of Chris and his unique voice for more than 5 years. This book really adds a robust process to writing content regularly. Chris's email sign up says something to the effect that it represents his "best work." I would add that his books, like this one, are his "best work." This book is very comprehensive and useful for both newbies and more seasoned writers. But I will also say that this book was as fun to read as it was to learn from.
