Wedding For A Knight

Synopsis

Be swept away to medieval Scotland with USA Today bestselling author Sue-Ellen Welfonder (also known as Allie Mackay) in an unforgettable tale where a Highland hero's honor is only matched by his lady's scorching passion. Your presence is requested for the marriage of a Highland Bride. Centuries ago, the bride of Reginald of the Victories took her life. The stones of their home Coldstone Castle iced over, ill fortune plagued the clan and everyone knew the chief's dead bride had cursed them. However, they believed that as long as the clan's fleet sailed the seas, the curse would not consume them. But now, the fleet has been destroyed and the clan has lost its wealth and power. After years on the tournament circuit and warring, Sir Magnus MacKinnon heads home with enough wealth to rebuild his clan. But he is robbed of his silver. Defeated, he arrives at Coldstone Castle penniless to find his wily father has married him by proxy, and is already spending his wife's dowry. Magnus is honor bound to bed his new bride, but he refuses to spend any more of her money. If necessary, he'll return to the tournament circuit and win another fortune. However, Lady Amicia proves a greater opponent than any he's ever faced on the battlefield. She's after his heart, and her weapon is scorching passion. But before she can win his love, she must find the saboteur who wants to kill her and keep the curse alive. "A very romantic story...extremely sexy." ~ The Best Reviews

The old book that I first read in 2004/2005 (and loved) is practically brand new in 2016 ! The old love Magnus and Amicia shared as youngsters is new again in their present day .For Magnus and Amicia it was love at first sight those many years ago . Because of their Clans off and on again feuds, they become separated for years . Although there were attempts to reunite, the pair were not to be . In the meantime Magnus goes away to become a Tourney Hero . He wishes to earn enough coin to bring his Clan better living conditions . He also needs to build a new fleet since his superstitious old laird father believes the Clan lives under a curse . On his way home, Magnus stops to fight at Dupplin Moor where the Scots take a brutal beating .While he is fighting, his three years of Tournament coin is stolen . Magnus returns home to discover his father has married him (by- proxy) to his forever love, Amicia! She is now a wealthy heiress and also her brothers have endowed her well. Upon reuniting, Magnus allows his pride to stand in the way of his love. Also his father is rapidly spending Amicia's bride money to rebuild the Clan's fleet . Amicia burns for Malcom ! She silently plots to have him set aside his pride and give her his heart. The plot thickens as an insider is attempting to rid the Clan of either father or son . At the same time, Magnus' adlepatated father, the Clan's Laird is running around expounding the curse and seeing "ghost ships" appear and disappear but only he can see ! Amicia is not without challenges either . A tiny fae-like beautiful cousin, that grew up with Magnus, fancies herself his true love. She tries to undermine Amicia. Amicia feels too curvaceous and bountiful thinking Magnus prefers that body.

Wedding for a Knight by Sue-Ellen Welfonder is a fantastic Medieval/Viking Historical Romance. Set in Medieval Scotland. Book 3 in the "MacLean" series, but can be read as a stand alone. What a powerful, and compelling story!! enjoy Ms. Welfonder's vivid descriptions of the Ancient World, using Scotland as a background. She never fails to amaze me with her storytelling!Please note: Wedding for a Knight was originally published in 2004 by Warner Books. This new edition has been entirely rewritten, re-edited, and contains fresh, never-before-read material.Sir Magnus MacKinnon, made his wealth, by selling his sword arm, warring and on the tournament circuit.

However, when he returns home, to Stonecold Castle, he's penniless, after all his silver was taken from him, by thievery. Then he returns to Stonecold Castle, only to learn his father has married him by proxy, to a neighboring clan's daughter, whose dowry is already being used to help rebuild the clan's fleet and Stonecold Castle... Lady Amicia, knows not what to expect once Magnus returns home or how he will react when he learns of their marriage. Honor, duty, and passion compel Magnus to do the honorable thing by his wife, and his clan, but can Lady Amicia, heal his wounds, to find true love? Or is passion the only thing that holds them together? Will they lose everything to a danger that lurks in the darkness, which some of the clanman believe is a century old curse? Can Magnus and Lady Amicia find their HEA, and rid the MacKinnon clan of the dreaded curse? Pick up "Wedding for a Knight", to learn these answers and more. Fast paced, well written tale with well-developed, captivating and engaging characters. Ms.
