Hard Up: A Military Mafia Romance

Synopsis

Callum Connor lives by one code -- kill or be killed. Only two things matter to Callum Connor - his gang, the Black Saints, and himself. When the former SEAL isn't protecting The Family or gunning down made men, he's burning his way through the women in Savannah. Even though he knows not to sh*t where he eats, one night he finds himself with his smoking hot bartender, Viola. She's nails-down-the-back, screaming-his-name kind amazing, but Callum has a rule: no f*cking the same woman twice. If only he could forget that night. Until an armed gunman comes into her bar, and Viola saves Callum's life when she shoots him where he stands. With the Valetti Family after the two of them, Callum has no choice but to protect the feisty, beautiful hellcat. Not that Viola's interested. She's sooner be stuck with a hungry grizzly bear, but Callum knows that without him by her side, she's as good as dead. The tension between them is more than they can handle. She's fiery and independent, and she makes his protective side come out. Too bad all he can think about is her smart mouth wrapped around the one part of him that just won't go down. Hot damn. When her walls come down and he gets the truth out, will he have the guts to keep what he loves? Either way, Callum is HARD UP. This book contains graphic violence, adult language, a lots of naughty behavior. For a limited time, get a BONUS BOOK -- Vivian Wood's Protection -- when you buy Hard Up!

FAMILY DRAMA & ROMANCE THAT SIZZLES
Callum and Viola have much in common, unaware they do since their one night of bliss together didn't contain much personal conversing. This sensual tale grabs you from the first word and holds you until all the obstacles they face disappear leaving you with a most satisfying conclusion. Viola ran away from her mafia family life, changing her name and is now working at Snake's bar as the bartender in Savannah. Callum, ex-navy seal, works for the Irish crime family, has no need for relationships. Viola has developed a full-blown crush on Callum since their night together. A hit-man on the prowl searching for Callum got a few lucky shots into him outside the bar. Fortunately for Callum, Viola who is not short on guts saved his life before the hitman went for the kill shot. Now indebted to her for saving his life they are both on the run from the Valetti Crime Family. Questions mulled through Callum's head; why was there a hit on him, why did Viola put her life in danger to save him and why all of a sudden did he like having the sassy blue-eyed beauty around? The only thing he knew for sure is that protecting Viola from the onslaught of dangers that lie ahead was paramount. The story is fast paced, fabulously written, and the fusion of military and mafia make this a superb read. The characters are engaging and come alive with witty dialogue and vivid scene descriptions that leave you in awe. The chemistry between Viola and Callum is fiery and their relationship is filled with unwavering devotion for each other. Callum is full of alpha arrogance at times but he certainly has a romantic side too. I so loved Viola's sass; even though at times tears were shed she finally did get the happy ending she deserved.
