Customer Reviews

I bought two copies for my brothers as a gift. They are both good people who love God but are unsure of how to reach within themselves--either with deep prayer, meditation or contemplation. They asked many questions about God and how to find answers to prayers and actually recognize the answer when it found them. This book was a WONDERFUL tool in helping them to see that God is around them all the time and our prayers are always answered---we just need to wake up a bit to SEE the answers. Their misgivings about 'going within' to find God were beautifully answered in this book. It was just perfect timing--many other books were too deep or had too much terminology foreign to their understanding. Harold Klemp's simple ways of helping spiritual seekers find God within are so brilliant---it reached both of them! One is a Catholic and the other ?...both love God and want to have a better spiritual relationship with the Holy Spirit (called the Eck, in Eckankar terminology...but the same thing none-the-less, and explained as such). They both loved the HU song on the Cd enclosed with this book as well as the explanations and exercises in it. Harold stated that no matter what religion you followed...use the 'spiritual techniques and spiritual exercises' in the book as you saw fit. He said if you are Christian, see Jesus...whomever you are comfortable with as an inner guide for your spiritual journey. And, if you had no one, you could have him be your Teacher if you wanted to...in other words---this is NOT a 'join Eckankar' book. It is a book geared for everyday people searching for deeper meaning and a deeper relationship with God. A beautiful gift. He is a wonderful spiritual teacher. Some call him a spiritual Master. They (my brothers)questioned that, too.
